SA Health COVID-19 Alert

URGENT ADVICE

The SA Government has introduced new COVID-19 restrictions for the next six days starting at midnight tonight, Wednesday 18th November 2020.

CIRCUIT BREAKER COVID RESTRICTIONS
Announced today 18 November 2020

South Australian Premier Steven Marshall says: "As of midnight tonight we need our state to pause for six days to stop the spread and keep South Australia safe and strong."

SA Police Commissioner Grant Stevens says they are still working on the details but has urged all South Australians to stay at home unless you are accessing essential services.

Masks will also be required in all areas outside the home.

From midnight the following facilities will be closed for a 6 day period:

- All schools, except for those servicing children of essential workers and vulnerable children
- Takeaway food
- Universities
- Pubs, cafes, coffee shops and food courts
- Elective surgery, except for urgent operations and cancer treatment
- Open inspections and auctions
- All outdoor sport or physical activity
- Construction industry
- Factories other than food and medical products

Other restrictions will include:

- FIFO work will be stopped for six days
- Regional travel is not approved
- Aged care and disability residential facilities will be in lockdown
- Holiday homes will not be available for lease or rental
- Wedding and funerals will be banned for six days
- Masks will be required in all areas outside of the home
- Exercise will not be available outside of the home

The following services are considered essential and will remain open:

- Water power and telecommunication
  - Supermarkets, but they will be limited in terms of access
  - Medical including mental health, supplies and access to services
  - Public transport
  - Airport and freight services including courier services
  - Petrol stations, access to financial institutions and postal services
  - Essential parts of mining, smelting and large factories
  - Childcare but only for families of essential workers

- Veterinary services

Dr Nicola Spurrier says now is the time to be patient and be kind and help other South Australians to get through this.

📍 URGENT ADVICE 📍

Anyone who visited or got takeaway (including delivery) from the Woodville Pizza Bar, 58 Woodville Road, Woodville on 6 – 16 November must immediately self-quarantine for 14 days. This includes people who live with you.

People who visited across this period should seek testing as soon as possible.

They must go directly to the testing location, wear a mask and alert the staff that they have visited the pizza bar.

This is a high risk location due to a link with positive cases.

Visit www.sahealth.sa.gov.au/covidcontacttracing for the full list of affected locations.
